

LIGNITE BY-PRODUCT — A truck from a Waco construction firm gets a load of slag aggregate at Rockdale's Alcoa Works. Alcoa officials said the material, a by-product of the combustion of lignite in the boilers at Alcoa's Rockdale Works power plant, is being tested for use as a road base and surface. Tests at Texas A&M College, College Station, show the slag mixed with other paving materials provides an economic, non-skid paving surface.

Jaycees Elect Schigut Prexy, Plan Road-e-o

Cameron Jaycees elected John Schigut, young city business-man president for 1959-60 in Monday elections and outlined further plans for safe-driving Teen-Age Road-e-o.

Other officers elected by Jaycees were: vice-president, Robert Zarsky; secretary, Frank Laeche; and treasurer, Frank Reed. Outgoing president Bill Crockett will be state director and Richard Williams will be director.

Chairman Henry Schattle asked that teen-age drivers enter the Road-e-o set for April 22 at the Safeway Store, Cameron.

Schattle said the Road-e-o was a challenge to the best drivers and invited all high school students with licenses to enter the contest.

He noted that parents permission is required prior to taking the written and road driving tests. Crockett noted that a Jaycee installation dinner was due in late April, but no date had yet been set.

He also said the membership drive continues and will be culminated by the banquet later this month.

Incumbents Return

City Votes Light

Unopposed races in city and school elections drew near record lows in voter turnouts this week in Cameron.

Vote total at City Hall for election of three city councilmen was 117, including write-in votes for other names, but only in twos or threes.

Incumbent Councilmen Hayden Lawrence, Lincoln Mondrik and Richard Moseley were re-elected to two-year terms. All were unopposed.

Total votes cast in the Cameron School election Saturday was an unofficial 37 with three votes incomplete. Dr. David Shapiro and Niley J. Smith were re-elected unopposed to three-year terms.

Mondrik sent out postcards inviting voters to participate in the city election.

The city vote was about one-tenth of the total cast in last year's near-record turnout of 1196 for city races for mayor and two council posts.

Seven candidates ran for the three posts last year. The three city councilmen will be re-installed at the next council meeting in two weeks.

Official tally of the city vote came at a council meeting Tuesday night.

The school board will meet tonight to make school election results official.

Surface Moisture Boosted By Rain In County Area

Cameron and Milam County drew upwards to two inches of rain Wednesday as a downpour started in the early hours that day.

Official rainfall total at 1 p.m. Wednesday was 1.64 as a light shower continued to fall.

Farms throughout the county had been hoping for rain for the past three weeks as topsoil dried to about six inches in depth.

Sub-soil moisture, agriculture officials said, was still satisfactory.

Only .01 of an inch had fallen in the previous seven days while rainfall for the year was considerably behind 1958 at this point.

Maize, corn, cotton and truck crops were badly in need of surface moisture for spring growth, according to farm observers.

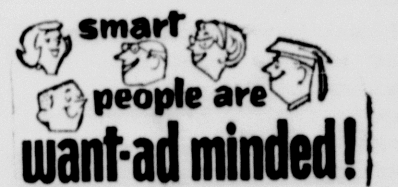

The rainfall ended a short drought of consistent rains that set in about six weeks ago. Last year steady rain fell during February, rains fell during February.

The weatherman predicted continued cloudy weather and scattered rains up to Saturday when the sun should again break through.

WEATHER NOTES

Overdue rains fell in Cameron and vicinity Wednesday as temperatures dropped to the 60's. Official rainfall at presstime was about 1.6 inches. Forecast was for a sunny week end with highs in the 80's. Only .01 inch of rain fell earlier this month.

A&M Tests Alcoa Slag In Roadways

Milam County's lignite reserves may develop a new turn in this county's economy and provide less expensive, safer highways for Central Texas.

Slag, the by-product of burned lignite at Rockdale's Alcoa Works, has been combined with other paving materials in test strips at Texas A & M.

Alcoa engineers noted Monday that the result has been a surface with economic high non-skid, quiet-riding properties.

Alcoa's Rockdale Works produces 450 tons of the slag material each day during the process of burning the mined lignite for aluminum plant power.

Official Advises Crop Treatments For Chinch Bug

Agriculture officials have reported a chinch bug attack on Milam small sorghum plants and a remedy for the invaders.

County Agent J. D. Moore reported receiving calls from across the county asking what measures could be taken to counter the chinch bug hazards.

He said that these bugs feed on corn sorghum, small grains and grasses.

The county agent advises farmers to check their field during the growing season and apply spray or dust if the bugs are found in damaging numbers.

If no control is applied, the bugs will attack the plants, continue to multiply and migrate to cultivated crops.

He advises: Spray, DDT, 2 pounds per gallon and about 3 quarts per acre; toxaphene-DDT about 1 1/2 quarts per acre.

If using dust: 10 per cent DDT, 20 per cent Toxaphene and 2 1/2 per cent dieldrin, applying dust at rate of 10-15 pounds per acre.

New Industry

The tests being sponsored by Alcoa and Texas Power & Light Co. may produce a new industry for Milam County and a use for the slag which for five years has been accumulating in huge dark mounds at the Milam County industrial plant.

Alcoa works manager R. R. Sugg noted the gritty texture of the material which, when combined in proper proportions with other paving materials, produces the non-skid surface found on the A & M test roads.

The Texas Transportation Institute thinks enough of the tests using the Rockdale slag aggregate to predict "savings to taxpayers and safer and quieter Texas streets highways from the use of the waste by-product of Texas industry."

"Two test sections in the Bryan College Station area now paved with the new compound indicate that it produces a much safer pavement surface and that it eliminates a considerable amount of the tire noise generally expected on conventional road surfaces," reports A&M College.

Tests By TTI

Tests at A & M College are being conducted by the Texas Transportation Institute.

Bob M. Galloway, associate research engineer with the TTI, believes the real application of the material would probably be for city streets because of its quiet non-skid features. He says it can be put down in layers as thin as a quarter of an inch if the street sub-structure is sound.

The Texas Highway Dept. is going to use some of the material in Milam County Highways in future construction.

Milam County's supply of lignite is large. And large lignite resources are found in many parts of Texas.

Lions Planning Broom Sale Today

The Cameron Lions Club will tour the city Thursday selling brooms, mops and other household items during their annual Broom Sale.

Proceeds will go for use at the Kerrville Crippled Children's Hospital for which chairs loaned free to countians by the Lions Club.

Members of the Cameron civic club will call on each business today.

Walkers Creek House Burns, Injures One

The Sam Henderson home near Walkers Creek, north of Cameron, Friday burned to the ground after a kitchen stove exploded.

Henderson suffered burns about his forehead and face, officials said.

A Cameron fire truck raced to the scene, but aid was too late to save the all-wood house, about 12 miles from Cameron.

Firemen soaked a 70-foot cottonwood tree for about 10 minutes which had been caught afire by flaming embers from the house. Officials termed the house a total loss. The exploding stove apparently spread flames throughout the kitchen and burned down the structure in about 15 minutes.

Sharp Couple In 2-Vehicle Wreck

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gamble of Sharp were treated at Richards Clinic for injuries received Friday in an automobile accident on Farm Road 487, seven miles northwest of Rockdale.

Charges of failure to grant right of way were filed against Sam Rogers, Negro of Taylor, who was driving a gravel truck colliding with the Gamble passenger car. The vehicles met on a one-way bridge at about 5:30 p.m. Friday. Highway patrolman Jack Straley investigated the accident.

City United Fund To Name Officers

Cameron United Fund organization will name 9 new members to the board of directors and elect new officers 7:30 p.m. Tuesday in the Ben Milam Cafeteria.

Incoming directors will serve on the board for 3 years, according to Edward Schiller, president. He added that anyone who had contributed to the United Fund was a voting member of the organization.

Retiring directors are: Hilliard Thomas, Mrs. W. A. L. Robinson, Lester Williams, Natalie Bynum, Jimmy Asher, A. W. Zajicek, Mrs. Carroll Green, Narvie Caperton, and Mrs. W. O. Triggs.

United Fund officers for the past year have been Schiller, Mrs. Bill Burns, vice president, and Henry Siebman, treasurer.

City Calls Bids For Paving 10th

Bid call went out for paving E. 10th St. in Cameron Wednesday and officials announced that all but four property owners have cleared the way for paving North Jackson and E. Sixth St.

In a Tuesday council meeting, city fathers called for bids on the 10th Street project after works Supt. J. B. Earle reported installation of a drain pipe under the right-of-way.

Mayor Bassel Wilson noted that all property owners on Jackson from E. 18th to E. Sixth St. have granted permission to grade and pave the mile long stretch, contributing $1 per running foot to the city project.

And Wilson said that four property owners along Sixth St. from Jackson west to Crockett will probably have to be assessed for the paving project.

E. 18th Project
A three-block project on E. 18th St. is forthcoming, officials said after mechanics' liens have been completed.

Councilmen considered pulling down the old water tower at the City Jail. Water-Supt. Alvin Hefft said the pipe, which burst this winter, has not been used for five years.

Councilman Richard Moseley called for action to check the possibilities of pulling the tower down after insurance considerations are made.

An unidentified contractor has volunteered to pull down the old tower for the salvage metal, officials said.

In other action councilmen set up a special session for 8 p.m. Friday to discuss city insurance coverage with the agents in Cameron.

Also approved was a bid of $176 for painting the front of City Hall. Low bid was submitted by L. J. Harris, Cameron painter.

Bids Approved
The following bills were approved for payment: Final jail payment, $1,632.50; drain pipe, $368.88; truck tires, $128.40; DDT chemicals, fog spray, $465; truck motor, labor $117.30; grader pump, $177.75; lumber, paint for new city barn, $319.41.

Turned down were all bids for the city barn and property on US 77 in east Cameron with bids ranging from $1227.51 to $400. The city paid about $1200 for the property about a year ago.

The Council also employed Snooks Michalka to run the city swimming pool for the summer, paying a $600 lease. He will maintain a detailed book system, officials required, to see what the operation cost setup is for the pool.

Cameron is making its final payment on the pool bond issue April 15.

Ol' 100

A letter from Jesse Wilkerson, of Houston, tells us a bit more about the history of this newspaper. Wilkerson worked at The Herald at the age of 15. And he remembers copies of The Sentinel, dating back to 1865.

"I spent considerable time," he writes, "reading those old copies, intrigued by the strange old-fashioned English style type. The news items of that period were limited in scope, but I was much interested in the names of those who were listed as returning home from the Civil War."

The native Cameroneite's recollection of reading Sentinels dated 1865 is one of our few references from living persons who saw copies that old. The old copies were since destroyed.

Wilkerson, born in Cameron and now living in Houston, is the author of "Come Home Bill Bailey" and "Comrades of the Canyons." He is also an employee of an oil company.

100-100-100

The Herald received a "special" this week from an "official city taxpayer." We quote:

"According to the number of Fox Holes in Cameron streets, we are well prepared for the show-down with Russia next month.

"That's what I called Preparedness and Alertness."

"(Official City Taxpayer)"

While this unknown writer is clever in his analogy of Cameron street problems, it is not this attitude which is fixing Cameron streets.

Rather, it takes hard work and co-operation between the City and its citizens to widen, straighten and level our streets.

Work is pending. Mr. Official City Taxpayer, on North Jackson, Sixth St., Fourth St., 18th and 10th Sts. It takes more than criticism to do what weather and many years have undone.

A Brighter Cap...

The state's approval of the Cameron water system added a bit more color to this county seat's headress.

Such an announcement has more import than just enabling us to post "water approved" signs at the city limits. It marks the completion of an important task and the beginning of further development in city facilities.

Firstly, Cameron can turn its attention to the more outward improvements in streets, already begun in a six-point program of paving and resurfacing.

Secondly, we can be sure of adequate water facilities for years of growth, short of a boom, with a system to handle daily 2.5 million gallons under extraordinary circumstances. Cameron now uses about three-quarters of a million gallons per day up to a peak load of 1.25 million gallons in the hottest summer days.

There are some cities of similar size that have not planned ahead for the potential growth of their communities. And they will face, if growth comes even slowly, additional work sooner than necessary on water problems.

Water has always been the key to civic success in Texas. Even now Dallas and Houston are sparring for access and water rights to the Trinity River, hoped to be made navigable one day by Dallas planners.

Cameron has the Little River at her doorstep and her water potential enhanced by leasing possibilities from the reserves of Belton Reservoir. Even another drouth, always a possibility in the Southwest, would be less a danger than in previous years.

Area water reserves mean as much to the farmer as to the city hoping for industrial growth. County farmers along the Little River, Brazos River and other tributaries can benefit in flood protection and irrigation services with adequate controls in Central Texas. And these water measures are materializing further each year.

Too, we have water control districts and small dam projects going in Milam County and Cen-Tex, all contributing factors to the development of consistent farming and ranching.

It is certain that water is the basis of prosperity for town or country. Cameron can look to her water system as a key to a wide-swinging door and as a feather in her progressive cap.

Wonders Where Washington Is Hiding Its Farm Oxygen Tents

Dear editor:

I don't know how it got there, what with the Berlin crisis on a summit meeting coming up this summer, Congress in session, and income taxes due, but right on the front page of a newspaper I was reading last night I ran into a discussion of the farm problem.

I always read every article I find on the farm problem, not to find out what somebody thinks the solution is, but what he thinks the problem is.

According to this fellow, the farmer's problem is mostly government aid, and if the government doesn't stop spending so much money supporting farm prices, the consumers are going to revolt, and the farmers will be in worse shape than ever.

Now I don't know how the consumers go about revolting, maybe stop buying all food that's farmer-grown, but what interested me about this man's idea of the farm situation was that he says "the farmer is living under an oxygen tent of government support."

And his idea for solving the problem is to jerk the tent off and let the farmer stand up on his own.

I hate to disabuse this fellow and while I don't know anything about farming in his part of the country, I have to report that the supply of government oxygen tents must have run out before they got out to this Johnson grass farm.

I've got plenty of oxygen out here, but it's not tented, it's right out in the open under the sun, frequently mixed with a little dust. However, agricultural oxygen tents sound good to me.

In fact, if the government has got some, why don't they make enough to go around? Ain't this a democracy we're living in?

Riding a tractor under an air-conditioned oxygen tent would go a long way toward solving one of the worst phases of the farm problem, which is going up one row and down another under a hot sun breathing dust.

Your faithfully,
 J. A.

Capital Report 'Now Or Never' In Texas Legislature

AUSTIN—With just about a month left between now and May 12, automatic adjournment date, it's "now or never" time in the Texas Legislature.

Bill sponsors are challenging other members to "pass it or kill it." No more playing the waiting game. Less juggling of the parliamentary ball.

House Speaker Waggoner Carr gave this "get with it" mood a strong shove by taking a firm stand on tax goals. "There is no Santa Claus," Carr told House members. Texas must raise $300,000,000 in new money to meet its obligations, he said. On "how to do it," the Speaker made these suggestions and observations:

1. A bill is needed "which will include a broad array of selective taxes — including, but not confined to — selective sales taxes."
 2. A general sales tax is "out." Lawmakers will — and should — keep their promises not to pass one.

3. "Broad" taxation would include upping levies in areas suggested by the governor — natural gas, liquor, cigarettes, corporations — but at a lower rate than suggested by the governor. In addition, many new items would be added, in keeping with the "spread thin, hurt little" principle.

4. "Piece-meal taxation" is unfair, inadequate to the present challenge. State government should not "reward political favorites." New taxes should be "spread across as much of the Texas economy as possible."

5. Likewise on appropriations. If college professors and state employees get a raise, public school teachers should, too.

Carr's speech was regarded as public announcement that he is taking the reins of leadership to get a tax program passed.

Gov. Price Daniel's comment on Carr's statement was in the vein of "why didn't you say so before?" Daniel said, "I am in agreement with much of it and only wish it had been made 30 days earlier."

House taxation committee chairman V. L. Ramsey of Beckville named a five-man committee to write a tax bill and have it ready early next week.

Given the task are Reps. Wesley Roberts of Lamesa, H. J. Blanchard of Lubbock, Joe Burkett of Kerrville, Ben Atwell of Dallas and Warren C. Cowen of Fort Worth.

Abandoned Property Bill
 Governor's abandoned property bill has been reported favorably by the House Tax Committee, but by committee action.

As originally proposed, the bill would have allowed the state to take over bank accounts and money and property held by banks, insurance companies, oil and gas companies, etc., if unclaimed for seven years.

As amended, the measure cut out all holdings except bank accounts and upped the waiting period to 20 years.

Rep. Marshall O. Bell of San Antonio, sponsor, said this would take away 60 per cent of the revenue raising possibilities.

Texas in 1980
 Creation of a vast "government center" that would cover most of an area seven blocks long and four blocks wide is the aim of the Capitol Hill Master Plan.

Legislators, whose assent will be needed to make the dream a reality, got a preview of the 20-year plan from architects and Building Commission members.

Governor Daniel said the $37,000,000 project could be financed with no new taxes. Income, he said, would come from the Confederate pension fund, funds of state agencies now paying rent for privately owned buildings and funds now available to the Building Commission.

Recommended steps for 1960-61 are buying up several more blocks of land and remodeling the Capitol to provide offices for House members.

Party Registration Fight
 A water-down party registration bill is in line for House consideration after approval of the Elections Committee.

Original proposal by Rep. Jamie Clements of Crockett would have required that a voter state his party preference and have it stamped on his poll tax at time of purchase. Thereafter, the carrier of a "Republican receipt" could not vote in a Democratic primary and vice versa.

Liberal Democrats, particularly DOT spokesmen, were very dissatisfied, even called the attorney general's opinion "dead wrong."

MILAM COUNTY'S Farm Scene

Milam, Burleson Farm Records Show Substantial Income Gains

Records kept by Milam and Burleson County farm families using Farmers Home Administration credit during 1958 show substantial gains in total cash farm income, increase of productive livestock and adoption of improved farm and home practices.

During the year their total cash income increased from an average of $4743.00 to $5010.00 and value of productive livestock from an average of $2221.00 to $3056.00.

During the year farmers in the two counties of Milam and Burleson borrowed a total of $158,890.00. Most of the funds were used for livestock and farm equipment purchases.

Repayments on loans outstanding totaled $174,288.00.

The 120 farm families who used Farmers Home Administration credit planned their work in detail at the start of the crop year. During the year they kept records of income and expenses. They have recently completed reviewing, with Roy M. Wright, county supervisor, the strong and weak points of their 1958 operations.

Major improvements during the past ten years include more home produced food, planting adapted seed varieties, more cattle in the operation, more families with hospitalization insurance, more and better farm records and obtaining adequate land and equipment resources, according to Wright.

Since 1948 more than 500 farm families in two counties of Milam and Burleson have taken advantage of the supervised credit program to strengthen their farming operations. More than 1000 additional families, who did not receive a loan, received credit counseling on various kinds and types of farm credit and financing, and technical information needed to make decisions.

County Agent Reports

Stockmen Boost Cattle Quality

By J. D. Moore
County Agent

You have heard the statement that a man's herd is no better than his herd sire. A number of Milam stockmen continue to improve their cattle herds.

Most recent purchases include an excellent registered Shorthorn heifer from the Trigg Shorthorn herd at Bastrop bought by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Richter. Mr. Robert Jungmann purchased a young Shorthorn bull also from the Trigg herd. This young bull promises to add much to the beef quality of our local cattle.

Mr. T. R. Allen and Morris Coward recently purchased two registered Shorthorn bulls from the Sutton Farm west of Belton owned by Mr. James Forsyth of Houston and managed by Mr. W. C. Wallace of Belton.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Brewer of Cameron are getting some excellent Hereford calves from the registered Hereford cattle purchased in 1958 from the Mason herd near Bartlett.

Mr. Henry Litzman and son Ronald recently bought a registered Hereford cow with a very high quality heifer calf by her side, also from the Mason Herd. Ronald will use the heifer as a scramble calf to be shown at the Houston Show next year.

Reports came from the north end of the county that Dick Ellison is well pleased with his crop of registered Hereford calves. During the past few years the Ellison herd has added some of the better bred bulls of the nation to their registered cattle herds.

Testing a bull's gaining ability over a given period of time is our most modern method of evaluating breeding animals. Through the study of genetics, it has been proven that paternal characteristics are inherited by the offspring in varying degrees. Through experimental studies, data shows that normally high gaining animals will pass this characteristic on to their offspring.

Mr. Richard W. Ellison of the Baileyville community has three Hereford bulls on test at the McGregor Station. Preliminary reports show that the bulls are gaining around 2.5 pounds per day. The adjusted weaning weights on these bulls at 205 days were 515, 548 and 523 lbs.

Results of performance testing show that the average weaning weight of calves can be increased by 100 lbs per calf.

Yes Sir, George Childress represents the Hartford Fire Insurance Company. You will be surprised how little the Best costs. —Adv.

Mr. Leon Noack of Rockdale is pleased with his crop of Hereford calves. Mr. Noack owns one half interest in a performance tested Hereford bull with Texas A & M college. He also had the high gaining Hereford bull at the Oleo test last year.

This "better breeding cattle" trend continues. Mr. Milton Falkner, Johnnie Good, Robert Jungmann, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Brod, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Richter, J. D. Moore, county agent and Mr. Preston Perry of Rockdale attended the State registered Shorthorn sale at Waxahachie April 4th.

Cattle purchases made at this sale included Mr. and Mrs. Richter purchasing a young cow with a heifer calf, Mr. Falkner purchasing two well developed heifers, Jungmann purchasing a nice heifer with his Houston scramble certificate and Mr. and Mrs. Brod purchasing a well bred heifer. All of these cattle are registered Shorthorn cattle.

Cattle breeders are due much credit for developing beef cattle to their present standard of excellence and production. Several of the breed associations are cooperating with research in beef cattle breeding, and the American National Cattleman's Association has an active research committee backing the National Beef Cattle Breeding Research being carried on cooperatively by the land-grant colleges and the U. S. Department of Agriculture. There is sound basis for improvement based on performance and this cooperative spirit of the breeders will carry production to new heights of efficiency.

Great differences exist in "doing ability" among cattle that outwardly appear alike. These differences form the basis for the selection program referred to as "performance testing."

Animal Health Meeting

The Milam County Farm Bureau in cooperation with the Extension Service and veterinarians of the county, are sponsoring an "Animal Health" meeting the night of April 16, at the Yoe High Agriculture building here in Cameron, 7:30 p. m.

Dr. Patterson, Extension Veterinarian from A & M College will be guest speaker. The public is invited and all livestock men are urged to attend this important meeting.

E. M. Trew Reports

Summer Pastures Needed

"The need for summer temporary pastures is greater than usual because winter pastures gave so little grazing and because of the dry spring," says E. M. Trew, extension pasture specialist.

Trew said summer temporary pastures are our most dependable source of summer grazing. They permit resting permanent pastures and give better quality grazing than permanent pastures.

For your summer temporary pastures, Trew recommends Sudangrass, Pearl millet, Perennial Sweet Sorgrass or Sorghum alnum.

Sudan gives the best quality grazing of all, Trew said. Pearl millet is suggested for use where Sudan does not produce satisfactorily, mainly on acid, sandy soils of East Texas and severely eroded, heavy soils of Central Texas. It is also recommended for use where Sudan and other sorghums "yellow out." Varieties of Pearl millet are Georgia Hybrid No. 1, Common Starr and Texas No. 7.

Perennial Sweet Sorgrass has a sweet talk but is coarser than Sudan. It is an annual and gives more grazing in mid-summer to fall than Sudan.

Sorghum alnum has a larger stalk than Sudan and is nonsweet. It gives more grazing in mid-summer to fall than Sudan but may give trouble from prussic acid. It will likely act as an annual when grazed heavily.

You can plant after danger of frost is past. You should plant in 36 to 42-inch rows to get the longest grazing period. Stock will not trample row plantings as badly as drilled plantings, Trew said.

The planting rate per acre for 36 to 42-inch rows is Sudan, 7 to 10 pounds, Pearl millet, 5 to 7 pounds, Perennial Sweet Sorgrass, 4 to 5 pounds, and Sorghum alnum, 3 to 5 pounds. Stagger plantings at two to four weeks intervals to prevent all being ready to graze at the same time, suggested Trew.

Put fertilizer down in a band as needed before or at the time of planting. A soil test is the best way to determine your soil needs, he says.

Copies of MP-313, "Pecan Diseases and Insects and Their Control" are available at the offices of local county agents or from the Agricultural Information Office, College Station, Texas.

Increased yields on dryland cotton and maize with ammonia

Albert Sulak, successful Hill County farmer, says: "Since starting to use Phillips 66 Ammonia I have more than doubled my average yields on cotton and maize. I used to grow legumes to improve the soil; now, with ammonia the yields are better, and it is cheaper and surer. With ammonia, we can defoliate cotton earlier and get the crop out sooner, before rain has a chance to lower the grade. Also the ammonia gets the crops started earlier, before dry weather sets in. That's a real factor here, where the average rainfall is 28 inches a year. Ammonia is high on my list of factors that help me get higher yields."

Other successful Texas farmers have discovered that they make more profit per acre, using Phillips 66 Ammonia. They get more cotton that classes higher at the gin... yields of sorghum grain or ensilage are increased... profits on wheat and small grains are boosted through higher grain yields and improved forage... more marketable vegetables are harvested.

Phillips 66 Ammonia can be easily applied by you or your distributor. See us today about Phillips 66 Agricultural Ammonia... it gives you more nitrogen per dollar than any other form of fertilizer—a full 82%.

Shrimp Soup Goes To Brunch

The week-end is here. In many American homes Sunday is the only day which allows for a leisurely breakfast or brunch. And, brunch is a happy solution for the career girl, the bachelor, or the working couple who wish to entertain guests in the easiest possible but grand manner.

Keep the menu simple but make one dish a "specialty of the house". Let frozen condensed soups guide you toward this goal. Turn frozen condensed cream of shrimp soup into a smooth, smooth sauce for CURRIED EGGS IN SHRIMP SAUCE.

An appetizing eye-opener to serve your guests is fruit, either fresh... in season... or freshly poured juice. Have an extra supply of hot buttered English muffins and lemon or orange marmalade to pass. Keep the percolator nearby for seconds of coffee. Remember, brunch borrows from breakfast and lunch but doesn't take to sweet desserts.

Curried Eggs in Shrimp Sauce
4 hard-boiled eggs
1/2 cup mayonnaise
1/2 teaspoon curry powder
1 can (10 ounces) frozen condensed cream of shrimp soup
1/2 cup can milk
English muffins (split and toasted) or toast
Paprika

Cut eggs in half lengthwise. Scoop out yolks into small bowl. Mash with fork; fold in mayonnaise and curry powder. Stir until smooth. Re-fill egg halves. Combine soup and milk in large shallow skillet. Heat until soup is thawed; stir now and then. Place eggs, filled side up, in soup. Cover; cook a few minutes, or until eggs are hot. If desired, spoon some hot soup over eggs once or twice while cooking. Place egg halves on English muffins or toast. Spoon sauce over. Sprinkle with paprika. Makes 4 servings.

CHICKEN HEADS THE MENU TONIGHT

When is chicken not popular? The answer is "never". Tonight, cook frozen chicken parts in canned condensed tomato soup as follows: Thaw 2 packages (11-pound size) frozen chicken breasts, drumsticks, or thighs as directed on package. Dust chicken with 1/4 cup flour. Brown in 2 to 4 tablespoons butter or margarine. Blend 1 can (19 1/2 ounces) condensed tomato soup with 1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce; pour over chicken. Cover; simmer about 45 minutes or until chicken is tender. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

He stops with Buick's exclusive braking system. (Fin-cooled, front and rear, aluminum drums in front.)

When he wants to speed up or slow down, he feels the quick answers of the smoothest transmissions of all... (only Buick combines Twin Turbine* or Triple Turbine* transmission smoothness with Wildcat getaway).

But why not find out for yourself? This car's quietness of motion. Its comfort of roominess and ride. Its willingness to do exactly what you wish of it.

Tom Murray's Column

WHAT THEY are saying in sports, stolen from here and there.

HAROLD BRADLEY, new University of Texas basketball coach, concerning two-sport athletes: "A Basketball player can take part in track and baseball but it is scholastically and physically impossible to play football and basketball."

NAT FLEISCHER, boxing expert, on the proposed Brian London-Floyd Patterson fight: "Cus D'Amato has brought boxing down to its lowest ebb. London is just an ordinary fighter; slow, inept and easy to hit. All in all, boxing is in a mess."

CLIFTON McNEELY, Pampa's fabulously successful schoolboy basketball coach: "Rice has made no definite offer. A few years ago I was in a big hurry to jump into a college job. But I'm not now."

DARRELL ROYAL, on the possibility of spring training sensations Mike Cotten and James Saxton beating out regular UT quarterback Bobby Lackey: "The way I look at for next fall, I've seen Lackey in 21 ball games. I've only seen Saxton and Cotten in practice."

SAMMY BAUGH, Hardin Simons famous coach, about his deaf mute end, Sammy Oates: "He's a very intelligent boy. We had an A student tutoring him for a test. Sammy made 96, the tutor made 92."

CASEY STENGEL: "You can put this down and I mean it. I'll never trade with Frank Lane as long as I have anything to do with the New York Yankees."

WARREN SPAHN, on his success secrets: "When I'm out there on the mound, I make up my mind I'm the best pitcher in the League, and that I'm as good, if not better, than any hitter that comes up to face me. A pitcher has got to be a little arrogant out there. He's got to believe in himself. He's got to think, 'I can get this guy out anytime.'"

PAUL RICHARDS, answering criticism on some of his big payments to bonus boys: "There are some writers in Baltimore who

Falcon Lake Recommended

By Vern Sanford

Hey, Mr. Fisherman! If you like to try out the new, see a huge expanse of water, and rough it a bit at the same time, we know the very spot for you.

It is Falcon Lake, fifty miles south of Laredo. Here a lake some 30 miles long and about five miles wide straddles the international boundary line between the United States and Mexico.

Falcon is a primitive lake, with fishing conditions unusual in every respect.

This lake was created when the International Boundary Commission built a dam across the Rio worry every time you spend some money. How else are you going to get ball players? I'll tell you how powerful that boy ($115,000 bonus boy Dave Nicholson) is. You know how ball players get to kidding. They got to kidding him one day in the shower and he took it all right. But as he left the shower, he just flicked the lever took it all right. But as he left the shower, he just flicked the lever with his left hand, turning the water. There wasn't a guy in the room or any of them together, who could turn it back on."

ADOLPH RUPP, upon receiving basketball "Coach of the Year" honors: "Our success at Kentucky can be summed up in two words—discipline and tradition. These are the heart and soul of our basketball program."

PITCHER EARLY WYNN, when asked his reaction to 17-year old son Joe Early's blasting three of his good curves against the fence in batting practice: "How'd you expect me to react? I brushed the kid back good a couple of times."

Grande. International boundary monuments were placed down the middle of the lake so that the boundary between the two countries might be well marked.

Brush, which consisted of mesquite, cats claw, huisache and cactus was left in the bottom of the lake. Two towns were moved from the banks of the river to higher grounds, but many of the old buildings remain standing. Today the old town of Zapata is almost completely inundated, while old Guerrero on the Mexican side stands about half out of water.

Some of the rock walls have tumbled down, and these old buildings now afford wonderful habitat for big bass.

At first it was feared there would be no bass in the lake. Commercial fishermen hit it heavy and hauled out thousands of pounds of rough fish. Then suddenly there was an explosion of bass, both blacks and whites.

Last year they were barely keepers. This year plenty of them run from two to four pounds, and quite a few six and eight pound lunkers are being taken. Also, many young bass are hooked. Sometimes you get one that isn't as big as the lure it hits.

This is direct evidence that there are at least two spawns a year in this, the southernmost Texas lake. At that rate it will continue to be a hot fishing spot despite the heavy pressure.

Up until now most of the big bass have been caught on three types of lures—Jiggin' Eels, Hawk Extractors and Bombers.

However the time is here when the bass will begin hitting top water lures. With a few days of warm weather and provided there are no disturbing floods, the next 30 days will produce some terrific catches.

There is a perfect highway to Falcon Lake. The two towns where accommodations can be had are of these towns, however, can begin to take care of the heavy influx of fishermen. Sportsmen are going there by airplane, automobile and bus.

Motor accommodations in the towns are very limited. If you plan to make a trip to Falcon Lake, you'd better begin right now to make your reservations. And it is almost impossible to get in on a week-end even with a month's advance notice.

There also is a scarcity of boats. Many fishermen take their own boats and motors, and it's a wise procedure unless you want to fish from the banks.

Frankly, it is a lake for big motors. Unfortunately, access is very limited. Some of the planners did n't use a recreational yardstick in measuring its values. Also, when the State Highway Department built bridges across arms of the lake, it failed to do enough bulldozer work in making launching ramps alongside the bridges.

Central Texans

DRINK...
Barg's and Sun Tang Flavors
BETTER? Yes!

Although there is plenty of fishing water on the United States side, approximately two-thirds of the lake is in Mexico. A thirty-day Mexican license costs only 80 cents however.

One good thing in favor of Lake Falcon is that prices haven't gone sky-high, as yet. Room rent and meals are well in line.

This time next year there will be more accommodations at the lake. So many fishermen will go there this year that capital is certain to move into and provide ample facilities.

It will be interesting to watch the results for a few years. Chances are very good that Falcon Lake will produce bass equal to Florida and in numbers beyond the fondest dream of the ordinary fisherman.

Covers For Treble Hooks
Every try to untangle a jumbled up mess of fishing lures? Fun, isn't it?

Man, there's nothing more disgusting. And that's not all. It's most impossible to separate even a few lures without barb-marking the finger a few times.

Then too, if you've every struck a treble-hook lure in your pocket, and later on tried to remove it—oh boy!

Anyway, Jack Braniff is your friend in need. Jack, who works at Mercy Hospital in Pleasanton, Texas, has come up with a simple solution that makes one wonder why he hadn't thought of it himself years ago.

Jack has invented an aluminum, triangular shaped cap that fits snugly over the treble hook. You squeeze the aluminum cap just enough to make it fit over the hook and there you are.

He calls them Jak-etts. And he points out that they not only eliminate the messy tackle box and make lures safe to carry in the pocket, but they also clean, sharpen and straighten the hooks. Equally as important, they protect children from injury.

Now is the time to start weed control programs in farm fish ponds. Ed Cooper, extension wildlife specialist, says control measures can be effectively used only during the spring and early summer months. He suggests that you contact the local county agent for details. Ask for a copy of B-213 "Improve Your Farm Fish Ponds."

Versatile Cameron Student Elects Medicine, Wins 4 Year Scholarship

An amateur photographer, serious student and son of a Baptist minister has chosen medicine for his life career and will be aided in preparing for his life work by the Baylor Medical Alumni Association through a 4 year scholarship.

John C. Russell, son of the Rev. and Mrs. A. F. Russell of Cameron, was named first recipient of the District One, Baylor Medical Alumni Association Scholarship at Baylor University College of Medicine in Houston.

A graduate of Yoe High School in 1955, Russell also graduated from Baylor University in Waco with the Class of 1958. He was named for the District One scholarship on the basis of his potential development and in competition with a number of other members of his class. The freshman class at the College of Medicine named for the District One scholarship has 84 members who were selected from a group of over 900 applicants.

Scholastic honors are not new to Russell who was holder of a 3 year Presidential Scholarship at Waco and was an honor student at Yoe High School.

Russell lists photography as his main hobby, but also tries to find time for fishing, hunting and tennis. While at Baylor he majored in Chemistry, worked as an assistant in the Biology Department, was a member of Beta Beta Beta, biology fraternity, and served as vice president of Alpha Epsilon Delta premedical fraternity.

His summer employment is further credit to the versatile student. In 1956 he was employed by an industrial generating plant, and in 1957 he was an employee of the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service doing research on red salmon in Kodiak, Alaska. This included both biological and chemical work.

Russell's 4 year scholarship was provided by Baylor physicians in the counties of El Paso, Hudspeth, Culberson, Loving, Winkler, Reeves, Ward, Jeff Davis, Pecos, Brewster and Presidio.

County Teachers Plan Election

The final meeting of the year for Milam County unit of the Texas State Teachers Association will be held in the Rockdale High Auditorium at 7:30 p.m. Monday.

Income Tax Facts

If you find for some reason beyond your control it is impossible for you to complete your federal income tax return for filing by midnight Wednesday, April 15, 1959 then you should request an extension of time in which to file your return. Extensions are usually granted, for good reason, for a ninety day period; although the Director may grant an extension for as long as six months, if the circumstances warrant.

Requests for extensions of time are filed on forms furnished by the Treasury in triplicate, and the request must be signed by you or your duly authorized agent.

These forms are available at your local office of the Internal Revenue Service. All requests for extensions should be on these forms and three copies are necessary. However, if you are unable to secure the forms, a letter will do.

Your application should clearly set forth the full cause of the delay and the probable time that you will be able to complete your return.

It should give your full name and address as it will appear on your tax return when you do file. If, by reason of illness, absence or other good reason, you are unable to sign this request, then any person in close business or personal relationship with you may do so, provided the reason and relationship are clearly stated in the request. In such case, the signer of the request will be considered your duly authorized agent for this purpose.

Extensions usually are granted for a good reason such as illness, accidents, inability to secure all the facts necessary to complete your return, etc.

Extensions are never granted because you are unable to pay the tax. If you cannot pay the tax due, file your return anyway. Uncle Sam will send you a bill and you will have to pay it sooner or later. He will charge you 6 per cent interest, but there will be no penalty. If you do not file your return on time, Uncle Sam will charge you 5 per cent for each month that your return is late, up to a maximum of 25 per cent. So, it is a lot better to file the return even if you can't pay the tax.

This is the final article in the series of 19 presented by this newspaper and the Texas Press Association. We hope you have found the series helpful.

Cameron Called The "Wild West" In 1884 By Early Day Doctor

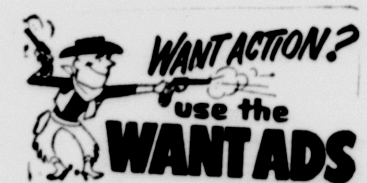

Miss Sue Shaw of 915 Ceylon Egal Pass, remembers forty years ago, but has files that date farther back than that. She has clippings from The Herald that date as far back as 1884, seventy-five years ago.

The late Dr. E. N. Shaw, her father, was a young doctor just finishing college in Georgia in 1884 and came to Cameron to seek his fortune.

Dr. Shaw wrote letters back to his sweetheart, Miss Kate Gaston of Atlanta, every week.

One thing has always aroused Miss Shaw's curiosity and she hopes that someone in Cameron has heard what happened a week before December 21, 1884. In one of Dr. Shaw's letters to his sweetheart, he wrote: "Quite an exciting scene took place in the school room here last week. I will send what The Herald has to say; which explains it more clearly perhaps than I could — the teachers are improving nicely at present and I hope will recover very soon." "P. S. I am unable to get the scrap from The Herald at present, will try to send it at my next writing."

In his many letters written back home he calls Cameron "the wild west" and tells of the rough cowboy. It sounds from the preceding incident as if Cameron could have had some "rough school boys" in 1884.

It Pays to Own a Dodge!

(It could save you hundreds of dollars!)

Okay, it's settled. You've thought about it and talked about it and now you've decided: A new car — and soon. Now for the jackpot question. Which '59 car will it be?

Unless you happen to be a Mr. Gotrocks, you'll probably think pretty carefully before you finally make the move. You'll do more shopping and compare more closely. And you'll ask yourself some basic questions. How much will a new car cost me to buy? How much will it cost me to drive? What do I get for my money?

There is no mystery about new car prices

Until this year, it was hard to compare different makes of cars to find which offered the most value for the money. It was like comparing apples and bananas. But not any more. Not since all new cars are required to carry price labels. Now, for the first time, you can compare various makes and models and see exactly what you're getting for your money. It's like exposing the hole cards in a game of stud poker: You know exactly where you stand.

Why should you buy a Dodge?

No one has to tell you that there are a number of cars on the market that sell for less than a Dodge. No cigar on that count. You know it and we know it. But there are things you get in a Dodge that you simply can't get in these other smaller cars. And this is important. Dodge gives you all of these things — the bigness and roominess, the comfort and ride, the luxury and prestige — for less than other cars in its field.

It's not just a few dollars less, either; in many cases it's literally hundreds of dollars less. Some Dodge models are even priced lower than the so-called "low-priced cars." (We'll be happy to show you the actual suggested retail prices.)

All cars cost money to run — but how much?

It would be nice if you just bought a new car and that was that. It didn't burn gas. Didn't use oil. Never needed service. But that's wishful thinking. Cars do use gas and oil. They do need service occasionally. But that doesn't mean that all cars cost the same to drive and maintain. Not by a jugful. There's a big difference.

Dodge is designed to run for less

Dodge has always had a reputation for economical operation. People who have owned them have found it costs less to run a Dodge, and that a Dodge needs service less often.

Take gasoline economy. The new Dodge 326 cu. in. Red Ram V-8 engine, because of its design and efficiency, will take you miles farther on a gallon of gas than any other V-8 in the Dodge field. You save money every mile you drive.

But that's only part of the story. The way Dodge is engineered and built saves you money on such things as engine wear, brake relining, tune-ups, spark plug replacement. When you add them all up, they represent quite a saving. Another reason why it pays to own a Dodge.

What do you get for what you pay?

According to Manufacturer's Suggested Retail Prices, Dodge generally costs less, model for model, than other cars in its field. Fine and dandy. But while price is important, it isn't the only consideration. The real standard of value — whether you're buying a new car or a can of beans — is what you get for what you pay. It's the "extras" you get at no extra cost that really determine which car is the best buy.

Dodge gives you more for less

Talk is cheap. Anyone can make claims. So let's be specific about the extras you get in Dodge at no extra cost. Torsion-Aire Ride — conceded the finest suspension in the industry — standard equipment on all Dodge models. Total-Contact Brakes, Safety-Rim Wheels, Electric Windshield Wipers, Independent Parking Brake — all standard on Dodge. Of course, you can also choose from such Dodge options as Push-Button Driving, Full-Time Power Steering and Swing-Out Swivel Seats.

There's a big difference in comfort, too

Goodness knows, we certainly don't want to knock competition. But we feel obligated to point out the comfort and convenience of the '59 Dodge. If you've tried getting into some of the other '59 cars you know just what we mean. To say it is difficult would honestly be an understatement. That's why we hope you'll come in and compare the difference in Dodge. How much easier it is to get in and out of a Dodge. How much more comfortable it is to sit in a Dodge. How much more room you have to stretch out. Really, it pays to own a Dodge.

It doesn't cost a penny to get the facts

We don't expect you to rush in and plunk down your money for a new Dodge just on the basis of what you've read. But if what you've read seems to make sense, we do hope you'll stop in to see, to drive and to price a Dodge. We think it's a waste of a buy, but then maybe we're prejudiced. Why not drop in and judge for yourself. We'll be more than happy to give you all the facts. No obligation, of course.

TEXAS CHAMPIONS OF FREEDOM LT. DICK DOWLING

The Fighting Irishman Who Stood Against an Army

Because a young Irish immigrant didn't know how to be afraid, Texas was spared the devastation suffered by Georgia and the Old South during the latter years of the Civil War. Lt. Dick Dowling, 25 years old, was a bashful, simple, easy-going "paddy" from County Galway. With 46 of his fellow dockworkers from Houston, he was commanded to defend Sabine Pass in that September of 1865, when it was selected by the North as the invasion point through which the entire state could be taken. Lt. Dowling and his 46-man homeguard outfit had six small and ancient guns, in a low mud fort, with which to defend his adopted state. Against him — a massive Yankee amphibious force of 21 warships, three field batteries, two heavy batteries, 5,000 well armed soldiers and two Generals.

But then, David had only his slingshot to use against Goliath. It seems incredible, but it's Texas history, and a glorious chapter — Dick Dowling's little band of "Dockwallpers" beat off or destroyed the fleet, ship by ship. They captured 450 of the invaders who succeeded in landing, and got away with quantities of supplies. Texas remained free of Northern occupation, to become the refuge, the hope, the new home for thousands fleeing the Union forces.

Today Texans still demand and get their right to choose the way they want to live. In this vigorous and freedom-minded homeland... "Beer Belongs" and this is why the United States Brewers Foundation works constantly, in conjunction with brewers, wholesalers and retailers, to assure the sale of beer and ale under pleasant, orderly conditions. Believing that strict law enforcement serves the best interest of Texans, the Foundation stresses close co-operation with the Armed Forces, law enforcement and governing officials in its continuing Self-Regulation program.

Tom Murray Sez: El Campo Boasts Sprint Merchants

BUT FOR wander lust, El Campo would have had the fastest pair of sprinters at the Houston Relays.

As it was the Ricebirds produced the sprint king, Eugene Dornak, who upset Gainesville's Pat Mitchell who did an amazing 9.6 at the Southwestern Recreation Meet in Fort Worth.

The 10-flat time was insignificant as Dornak plowed into a brisk wind but the fact El Campo produced both the first and second finisher is not.

Lee Mitchell, in his wanderings around the state, was football coach at El Campo when Pat was born 16 years ago. Pat and Dornak who has a 9.8 this spring, would have made a formidable sprint-relay pair.

Just to provide something to mull over through the summer: Get ready to watch Pat Mitchell race a lot next spring.

Under interscholastic rules, track men may transfer from one school to another and become immediately eligible. There is no one-year residence required as in other sports.

Lee, who had some of his glory years in salt grass country, looks longingly and it is known that if the right school makes the right job offer they are going to pick up a potential 9.5 sprinter and an 18.5 low-hurdler in the process.

WINSTON PORTER, Baytown's surprise starter as University of Texas short-stop, has been leading Longhorn hitting with an average in excess of .400. He replaces another powerful UT shortstop, Glenn Von Rosenberg of Cameron All-State Fullback James Parker, Sweetwater, has signed with TCU. He is 6-2, 195. The Waco News Tribune selected Port Arthur's basketball gift to the Texas Aggies, Carroll Broussard, the outstanding performer on its All-SWC frosh. Other members of the all-star group were Jon Larson and Jan Loudemilk, SMU, Mike Maroney, Rice, Bill Brown of Texas and Galena Park's David Warnell, an almost certain starter for Buster Brannon's TCU Froglies next winter. Baylor, where a new breath of optimism blows around the coming of a football savior, John Bridgers, is pouring out the money. Ad Bridgers has released an announcement the Green and athletic facilities, including coaches offices, practice football fields and a new cinder track for Jack Petterson's Bear track men. Liberty has one of the state's more appealing sophomore athletes in John (Doboy) Collins. One of the skinniest but more talented schoolboys, Brazosport's Danny Keller, is a picture of versatility. He high jumps near 6-4, runs the high hurdles in the mid-fourteens, does a mean quarter-mile and is a good sprinter. Somebody made the observation, and it may be true, that Ray Poage, Lamar's sensational 6-3, 200-pound athlete, is better right now than Pasadena's fabulous Bert Coan ever was. One SWC recruiter says there is no comparison in personalities. Think how Duke University must feel about the state of Texas. The North Carolinians, where an eastern dialect is more prevalent than the Southern drawl, have seen Dave Sime (New Jersey) beaten again by Bobby Morrow and the University of Texas steal away their basketball coach, Harold Bradley. ## View On Sports

By Robert Mann

Herald Sports Editor

Babe Ruth League president El-don Batte and his assistants are surveying Cameron for a possible site to serve as a new baseball field.

With Yoe High Athletic Field being replanted during the summer for the next football season, there will not be ample room to accommodate all the youngsters participating in the various leagues and activities.

The old City Park in downtown Cameron has been leased and will not be available.

If, when, and where a new park is built it will be a larger field than the one at Yoe High and will be capable of seating large crowds.

A good many sports fans on the local scene remember 1948 as one of the greatest years in Yoe High School athletic history.

1947-48 Cameron was district champion in every conference sport, the first and only time that ever happened around here.

As well as football they copped titles as being the best in basketball, track and baseball.

V O S

Cameron's Independent Baseball team got under way by playing the Yoe High School baseball team last Saturday.

They will play throughout the summer and are supported by local businessmen.

Taxpayers Reminded All Income Forms Will Be Reviewed

Taxpayers were reminded today by A. P. Andrews, Administrative Officer of the Internal Revenue Service in Temple, that preparation of their 1958 tax forms by Internal Revenue Service personnel, or aid in preparing them, doesn't mean that the returns won't be audited later.

"Some taxpayers," he said, "believe that returns prepared in our offices are finished and that they need have no further concern with them. Not so. Internal Revenue Service employees assisting taxpayers in preparation of tax returns are only following the information provided by taxpayers. If later examination reveals inaccuracy, the taxpayer will have to explain and account for the doubtful entries."

Taxpayers should try to prepare their own returns. The first step to do so is to gather all business or financial records for 1958. Then, reading tax forms and their instruction booklets, and line by line, most taxpayers will be able to prepare their own returns.
